SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

Issues to consider when ordering the sale of real property:

1. How shall the real estate agent be selected? If necessary, how should subsequent agents be selected?
2. Should a commissioner or commissioners be appointed to effectuate the sale and should the attorneys in the case serve?
3. Is there concern as to the condition of the property now and should an evaluation be made to ensure that any subsequent damage is charged to the appropriate party?
4. How shall repairs or other necessary expenses of sale be paid?
5. Who will be responsible for mortgage, tax and insurance payments pending sale? Will those be reimbursed wholly or partially from sale proceeds?
6. How will sale price be determined?
7. How will proceeds be divided? Be sure to indicate if net or gross proceeds are to be divided. If sale ordered prior to trial, who will hold proceeds from sale?
8. Will both parties sign necessary documents or will someone be designated to sign?
9. Have you included language that the party in possession of the property will ensure that the property is available and in an appropriate condition for showing?

ATTACHMENT B
TRANSFER OF PROPERTY

In most equitable distribution orders, the parties are directed to sign all necessary documents to effectuate the transfer of property. A time limit, usually 60 to 90 days after the judgment is filed, should be indicated in the order for such documents to be signed. An alternative method of transferring title should then be provided. In cases where one of the parties fails to participate in the action, an alternative method should always be included.

Vehicles

The Defendant is directed to sign the title to the 20xx Brand Automobile to the Plaintiff within 60 days of the filing of this judgment. If he fails to do so, the North Carolina Division of Motor Vehicles is directed to issue a new title solely in the Plaintiff's name for the 20xx Brand Automobile, Vehicle Identification Number 99999999999999. (Remember in issuing orders of this nature that there may be issues related to liens on vehicle titles.)

Real Property

The title to the real property located at 4726 Greensboro Way, Fayetteville, NC and more particularly described as:

Beginning at a point and other language that sets out a legal description of said property

Is transferred to Defendant husband. Plaintiff wife is ordered to transfer her interest in said property to the defendant husband through the execution of a quit claim deed within 60 days of the filing of this judgment. Should plaintiff wife fail to comply with such order, Plaintiff wife shall be divested of title to said real property pursuant to North Carolina General Statute 1A, Rule 70 and title to that property vested in Defendant husband.

Or should plaintiff wife fail to sign such quit claim deed within 60 days of the filing of this judgment, then pursuant to North Carolina General Statute 1A, Rule 70, the Cumberland County Clerk of Superior Court is directed to sign in her stead.
