

North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers Recipients of Outstanding County Appraiser of the Year Award

NCAAO Appraiser of the Year:

The Appraiser of the Year Award is designed to recognize one outstanding appraiser annually. It is presented in recognition of outstanding achievement in tax assessment and public service. General requirements of the award include:

1. Must be a North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers member in good standing;
 2. Must have five (5) years of continuous appraisal service as a Certified County Appraiser; and
- Must have demonstrated an exceptional performance record over the past two (2) years in his or her local community.

Year	Recipient	Jurisdiction
2011	Mark McClintock	Rockingham
2012	Pete Richardson	New Hanover
2013	Linda Brown	Buncombe