230.92 CONCEALMENT OF DEATH - INTENT TO CONCEAL UNNATURAL
DEATH BY DISMEMBERING OR DESTROYING HUMAN REMAINS. FELONY.

The defendant has been charged with concealing the unnatural death of a person by [dismembering] [destroying] human remains.¹

For you to find defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove three things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant knowingly and willfully [dismembered] [destroyed] human remains by [removing body parts] [obliterating any portion of the remains] [describe other means of destroying or dismembering human remains];

Second, that in doing so the defendant intended to conceal the death of a person;

And Third, that the defendant [knew] [had reason to know] the human remains were of a person that did not die of natural causes.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date the defendant knowingly and willfully [dismembered] [destroyed] human remains by [removing body parts] [obliterating any portion of the remains] [describe other means of destroying or dismembering human remains]), that in doing so the defendant intended to conceal the death of a person, and that the defendant [knew] [had reason to know] the human remains were of a person that did not die of natural causes, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, then it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
