

236A.22 ENGAGING IN A RIOT. MISDEMEANOR.

The defendant has been charged with engaging in a riot.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that there was a riot.

A riot is a public disturbance, involving an assemblage of three or more persons which, by violent and disorderly conduct or the imminent threat of violent and disorderly conduct,

[results in injury or damage to persons or property]

(or)

[creates a clear and present danger of injury or damage to persons or property].

A *public disturbance*¹ is any annoying, disturbing or alarming act or conduct exceeding the bounds of social toleration normal for the time and place in question. The disturbance must [occur in] [affect or be likely to affect persons in] a [public place]² [place to which [the public] [a substantial group] has access]. ((Name place, i.e., the yard of Prospect Methodist Church) is a [public place] [place to which [the public] [a substantial group] has access.]) ((Name group, e.g., the Members of Prospect Church) are a substantial group.))

Violent and disorderly conduct consists of:

- a) [fighting or other violent conduct.]
- b) [(an) [utterance] [gesture] [display] [abusive language] which was intended by the person using it to provoke violent retaliation and thereby cause a breach of the peace, and which was likely to do so.]

- c) [(Describe any other form of disorderly conduct relied upon by the State. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 14-288.4(a)(3) through (6)).]

And Second, that the defendant willfully engaged³ in the riot. Willfully means intentionally and without justification or excuse.⁴

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant willfully engaged in a riot at (describe place), it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or if you have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.

1. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 288.1(8).

2. "The places covered by this definition shall include, but are not limited to, highways, transport facilities, schools, prisons, apartment houses, places of business or amusement, or any neighborhood." N.C. Gen. Stat. § 14-288.1(8).

3. Mere presence alone, without an overt act, is not sufficient to sustain a conviction. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 14-288.2(g).

4. Evidence that a person has disobeyed a lawful command to leave the scene of a riot after being lawfully ordered to do so is sufficient to let the case go to the jury on both the question of participation and willfulness. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 14-288.5(c).
