[disabled] [elder] adult as a result of family relationship or who has assumed the responsibility for the care of a [disabled] [elder] adult domestic setting is any residential setting except for a health care facility or residential care facility.

Fourth, that the defendant committed domestic neglect of a [disabled] [elder] adult in that he [failed to provide [medical] [hygienic] care to the alleged victim] [[confined] [restrained] the alleged victim]. To [confine] [restrain] is to imprison or restrict the freedom of movement of the alleged victim, in a place or under a condition that was cruel or unsafe.

Fifth, that in doing so the defendant acted [wantonly] [recklessly] [with gross carelessness].

And Sixth, as a result, the alleged victim suffered a [mental] [physical] injury.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date, the defendant was a caretaker of the alleged victim, the alleged victim was a [disabled] [elder] adult, the alleged victim was residing in a domestic setting, that the defendant [failed to provide [medical] [hygienic] care to the alleged victim] [[confined] [restrained] the alleged victim [in a place] [under a condition] that was unsafe], and in doing so the defendant acted [wantonly] [recklessly] [with gross carelessness] and the alleged victim suffered a [mental] [physical] injury, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find, or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
