259.30 PRACTICE AS A CLINICAL ADDICTION SPECIALIST WITHOUT A LICENSE. MISDEMEANOR.

The defendant has been charged with the crime of practicing as a clinical addiction specialist without a license.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove three things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant held [himself] [herself] out to be a [certified alcohol and drug counselor]<sup>1</sup> [certified prevention specialist] [certified clinical supervisor] [licensed clinical addiction specialist] [licensed clinical addiction specialist associate] [certified substance abuse residential facility director] [certified criminal justice addiction professional] [clinical supervisor intern] [alcohol and drug counselor intern] [registrant].

Second, that the defendant did so without first having obtained a notification of [registration] [certification] [licensure] from the North Carolina Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board.

And Third, that the defendant [offered substance use disorder professional services] [practiced] [attempted to practice] [supervised].

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date the defendant held [himself] [herself] out to be a [certified alcohol and drug counselor] [certified prevention specialist] [certified clinical supervisor] [licensed clinical addiction specialist] [licensed clinical addictions specialist associate] [certified substance abuse residential facility director] [certified criminal justice addiction professional] [clinical supervisor intern] [alcohol and drug counselor intern] [registrant], that the defendant did so without first having
