

259.70 MEDICAID SUBROGATION – WITHHOLDING INFORMATION.

The defendant has been charged with withholding information related to a Medicaid subrogation¹ matter.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove two things beyond a reasonable doubt.

First, that the defendant [sought] [obtained] Medicaid assistance for [the defendant] [another].

And Second, that the defendant willfully failed to disclose the identity of a [person] [organization] against whom the defendant had a right of recovery, contractual, or otherwise, to the [(name county) Department of Social Services] [attorney for the (name county) Department of Social Services] and to the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date the defendant [sought] [obtained] Medicaid assistance for [the defendant] [another] and willfully failed to disclose to the [county department of social services] [attorney for the department of social services] and to the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, the identity of a [person] [organization] against whom the recipient of the Medicaid assistance had a right of recovery, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, then it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
