ESCAPE FROM PRIVATE CORRECTION FACILITY. FELONY.
GENERAL CRIMINAL VOLUME
MAY 2001
N.C. Gen. Stat. § 14-256.1

280.21 ESCAPE FROM PRIVATE CORRECTION FACILITY. FELONY.

The defendant has been charged with escape from a private correctional facility.

For you to find the defendant guilty of this offense, the State must prove three things beyond a reasonable doubt:

First, that the defendant had been convicted of a criminal offense in a jurisdiction other than North Carolina.

Second, that the defendant was in lawful custody in a private correctional facility located in North Carolina.

And Third, that the defendant escaped from custody.

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the alleged date that the defendant had been convicted of a criminal offense in a jurisdiction other than North Carolina, that the defendant was in lawful custody in a private correctional facility located in North Carolina, and that the defendant escaped from custody, it would be your duty to return a verdict of guilty. If you do not so find or have a reasonable doubt as to one or more of these things, it would be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty.
