

N.C.P.I.-Motor Vehicle 210.40
EMERGENCY VEHICLES-PARKING WITHIN 100 FEET OF EMERGENCY VEHICLE.
MOTOR VEHICLE VOLUME
JUNE 2007
N.C. Gen. Stat. § 20-157(e)

210.40 EMERGENCY VEHICLES - PARKING WITHIN 100 FEET OF EMERGENCY VEHICLE.

The motor vehicle law provides that it is unlawful for the driver of a vehicle [other than one on official business] to park and leave standing such vehicle within 100 feet of (a) [[police]¹[law enforcement]²] [fire department] [public ambulance] [private ambulance] [rescue squad emergency service] vehicle(s) which (is) (are) engaged in the investigation of an accident or engaged in rendering assistance to victims of such accident.

A violation of this law is negligence within itself.

1. Two versions of N.C. Gen. Stat. § 20-157(e) appear in the General Statutes. This alternative should be used under the version which is designated "Effective before July 1, 2006."

2. This alternative should be used under the version of N.C. Gen. Stat. § 20-157(e) which is designated "Effective July 1, 2006."